

What do you think REAL. LIFE. is like for this boy?

"I'm only one person, but I can make a difference!"

This boy is in a rehabilitation center after he escaped from the Lord's Resistance Army, the rebel group in northern Uganda. Try to put yourself in his shoes and write your responses. Use your imagination and what you have learned from the REAL. LIFE. exhibit.

What was this boy's life like when he was forced to be a soldier with the rebel group?

What do you think he thinks about?

He is praying. What do you think he says to God?

What do you think his life is like now?

What is the picture saying to you?

What will the future be like for this boy?

What does he need?

If you could do something for this boy, what would you do?
What would you say?
